Dark story about a girl who wants to live and a man who wants to die.

The setting is pseudo-Europe of Medieval times with crusades. Touching but gothic and in some parts violent story, memorable music and atmospheric but okayish art. I'm not a big fan of minimalistic designs in visual novels but very good writing won my heart.

Johann (male main character's) plotline is one hell of an emotional rollercoaster.

P.S. don't mind 0 mins timer, the story is around 3-4 hours.
